HAVE EXHIBITS AT ORANGE SHOW

Associated Chambers to Conduct Excursion to San Bernardino on 22nd

DID NOT WARM TO LOS ANGELES SHOW

Los Angeles Asked to Protect Interests of Towns in the Freight Controversy

Orange County will have an exhibit at the National Orange Show to be held in San Bernardino beginning Feb. 19, and on Feb. 22 an excursion will go from this county to the show. This, in short, was the principal action taken at the meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce at Newport Beach last night. The committee appointed to have charge of getting up a citrus fruit exhibit from this county is composed of Charles Eygabroad, Anaheim, chairman, Augustus Stern, Fullerton, G. W. Minter, Santa Ana, Thomas Barry, Placentia, and E. M. Nealley, Tustin. J. A. Kemp of San Bernardino, who is in this county advertising the show, presented San Bernardino's invitation. He stated that the exhibition grounds comprise five acres, and fully 100,000 people are expected to attend. He said that if the county so desires the San Bernardino committee will meet the fruit exhibit and see that the exhibit is properly installed, but the Associated Chambers of Commerce seemed so much interested in the project that it was decided to handle the exhibit itself. Fruit for the exhibit will be solicited from all over the county. Those present at the meeting thought it would be a good idea to visit San Bernardino on Feb. 22 as an excursion from this county. It was predicted that 300 or 400 people would go.

A representative of the land show to be held in Los Angeles was before the meeting, and presented the proposition, which was that Orange County pay $900 for space on the exhibition floor, and install and maintain the exhibit during the seventeen days of the show. Santa Ana representatives stated that last year the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce had the floor space donated by the Pacific Electric, and still the cost of keeping up the exhibit was so great that the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce "went in the hole" $250. Believing that the expense of the affair would be too great for the Associated Chambers to handle, the proposition was frowned upon last night, but Stern of Fullerton was named as chairman, he to select his associates, to see what could be done about financing an exhibit at the land show.

Report on Rates
A. A. Mills as head of the committee on freight rates, read the following report, which was filed:
"Held a meeting as per arrangement on November 24, 1911, with Mr. Stubbs of the S. P. and Mr. Barwell of the Santa Fe. The state railroad commission was represented by Mr. A. B. Roehl. After an informal discussion of the matter it was decided to proceed informally with the carriers.

"The committee (Mr. Eygabroad, chairman) on financing the proposition was notified at once of the change and requested to wait until further notice. To simplify matters, a request under date of Jan. 15, 1912, was forwarded to the state railroad commission asking permission to withdraw complaint of Oct. 28, 1911, without prejudice. Reply not yet received.

"Since filing our complaint the San Pedro-Los Angeles case against the S. P. has been decided in favor of the shippers and the carrier has asked the federal court for injunction which was temporarily granted, and excess rates are impounded, to be paid to shippers if case is decided favorably to them.

"A case from Imperial county has been heard and taken under advisement. Both of these cases are similar to our own.

"In the Imperial county case the railroad commission has initiated a further investigation than asked for into all freight rates between Los Angeles and Imperial county. It has also initiated a hearing against the Salt Lake road on all freight rates between San Pedro and Los Angeles.

Daily Report To Be Gotten Out By Peters

County Recorder George E. Peters is going into the publishing business. What's more, it is a daily, every day except Sundays and holidays.

He has bought the press, and the first issue will appear tomorrow morning about 10 o'clock.

Peters is to be editor-in-chief, foreman of the composing room, business manager and printer's devil.

The long and short of it all is that the county recorder is going to get out the Daily Report hither to gotten out by the Orange County Title Co. This report shows in brief every document placed on record, and every judgment and every articles of incorporation filed with the county clerk. The recorder has undertaken the report at the request of a number of those who knew that the title company has found it a losing game and that it was going to quit. Peters has secured enough subscriptions to pay his expenses, though not enough to pay for his trouble, but he is willing to go to the trouble to accommodate the public. The Register is one of the subscribers to Peters' Daily Report.

RAILROAD KING IS DEAD IN NEW YORK

Edwin Hawley, Controlling
20,000 Miles of Railroad
Yields to Death

VICTIM OF OVERWORK AT AGE OF SIXTY-TWO

Was Huntington's Protege—Won Chicago & Alton From
E. H. Harriman

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Edwin Hawley, E. H. Harriman's successor as a "railroad wizard," is dead from a complication of diseases. He has been ill for several weeks. He was really a victim of overwork.

Hawley was a stockholder in many of the leading railroads and the announcement of his death slightly disturbed railroad stocks. The news of his death was withheld, giving time for his associates to protect themselves from a bear raid.

Hawley was aged sixty-two at the time of his death. He controlled twenty thousand miles of railroad with a capitalization of over four hundred millions of dollars.

Collis P. Huntington, the Pacific Coast railroad builder, first discovered Edwin Hawley's genius. He was Huntington's lieutenant until the death of the latter. Hawley finally clashed with Harriman and was beaten. He then retaliated by grabbing the Chicago and Alton from Harriman. He also secured the Iowa Central, and Minneapolis and St. Louis, and later secured control of the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Hocking Valley, Toledo and Ohio Central, the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville road and the Atlantic Coast Line of the M. K. and T.

Except for his valet and two physicians, Mr. Hawley was alone when he died. He intended to go South tomorrow to recuperate. His trunk was packed. At 2 o'clock this morning he called his valet, complaining of pains in his heart. The physicians arrived too late to aid him. He was a bachelor and his nephew was his nearest relative.

OFFERS RAIN FOR $3,000

Hatfield Solicits Chamber of Commerce for Job as Producer of Downpours

Charles Hatfield, alleged rainmaker, has made overtures to a number of Southern California towns to produce rain this spring.

Santa Ana has been favored with one of his offers.

All that Hatfield asks his suit of $3,000, and for that sum he promises to produce no less than six inches of rain during February. No rain, no pay.

The offer has come in a letter received by J. A. Willson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, from Hatfield, who is now in San Diego.

A similar offer was received a few days ago from Hatfield by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

The vote on this amendment was 39 to 34.

FINDS BURGLAR SEARCHING HOUSE

Mrs. Frank Ey Returning Home
Interferes With Intruder's
Operations

SEVERAL OLD COINS ONLY ARE MISSING

Thief Jumped Out of Window as Wife of Mayor Entered the House

A burglar who entered the home of Frank Ey, president of the board of city trustees, last night about 8 o'clock was frightened away by the return of Mrs. Ey from a visit at a neighbor's house. The burglar jumped out of a window, and got away. So far all that is known to be missing are several old coins taken from a collection gathered by Mr. and Mrs. Ey.

Ey left the house about 7:15 o'clock and went to town. About 7:30 o'clock, Mrs. Ey went to a neighbor's house, and was gone about an hour. She locked the doors. The burglar gained entrance through a west window of the residence, which is at the northeast corner of Ninth and Bush streets. When Mrs. Ey entered the house she heard someone in another room. At that time the man was leaving by way of a window on the east side of the house.

Mrs. Ey ran to the home of T. A. Winbiger, and from there a telephone message was sent to the police. Policemen Ryan and Lacy responded. Before they could reach the neighborhood, the burglar was well out of sight.

An inspection of the house showed that the burglar had lighted a number of matches in making his search for valuables. He had not finished searching the first floor before his operations were interfered with by Mrs. Ey's return. The burglar left behind many of the coins in the collection, evidently deeming them worthless for his purposes. The coins taken were United States coins.

Mrs. Ey remembered that yesterday afternoon she saw two men hanging around the corner, and she thought at the time they were looking the house over. However, she paid little attention to them and could give the officers but scant descriptions of them.

Ryan and Lacy stopped a number of suspicious looking individuals and searched them for coins of the kind stolen from the Ey residence, but found nothing.

BRYAN AGAIN TO WILSON'S DEFENSE

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 1.—The following editorial in the Commoner gives further evidence that W. J. Bryan will support Gov. Woodrow Wilson for the presidency:

"If the friends of Col. Harvey establish the doctrine that a candidate has no right to discard a discredited supporter, then Wall Street is in a position to drive all progressive candidates from the field. It would only be necessary to divide odorous representatives of predatory wealth among the black-listed candidates. While Wilson may not be the most available candidate, it will take more than a break with Col. Harvey to put him out of the running."

LETTER THREATENS J. P. MORGAN, JUNIOR

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The police are searching for a man who threatened "something serious," unless J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., left $100,000 at a designated place.

The homes of both Morgans are guarded. The letter was apparently written by an intelligent person who said:

"I know the manipulations of the Morgan Wall Street house. I lost all my money through them. I consider it up to the Morgans to make restitution."

LEADERS OF JUAREZ REVOLT FACE DEATH

Government Will Execute Them When Town Is Recaptured—Many Were Slain In Uprising

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 1.—It is rumored that the government will court martial the Juarez garrison and execute the ringleaders in last night's mutiny when Juarez is re-captured. President Madero is in conference with Gen. Orozco whose reported resignation is believed to have caused the mutiny.

MANY DEAD FROM LAST NIGHT'S FIERCE DISORDERS

EL PASO, Feb. 1.—Investigations today confirm the death of fifteen, including two Americans, as a result of the mutiny of the Juarez garrison. Thousands are taking refuge in El Paso. Four troops of American cavalry are guarding the border, and bridges are being patrolled. It is quiet today, but further trouble is anticipated.

JUAREZ GARRISON IN UNEXPECTED REVOLT

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 1.—Ciudad Juarez is again in the hands of the rebels in opposition to the existing government. Ten months ago Madero and his command took the town from the Diaz soldiers. Last night the men who helped Madero take the town turned against him, and have taken possession in the name of Zapata, who is leading the only rebellion of independence against Madero.

The mutineers imprisoned their colonel, Augustin Estrada, close friend of Madero and of General Pascual Orozco, and also locked Augustin Gallo, chief of police, in the jail. This was their first act. Their next act was to declare Captain Martinez their leader, to seize all the arms and ammunition in Juarez and to send men south to blow up the railroad tracks between them and Chihuahua and Mexico City.

Several stores were broken open by the mutineers, and every cartridge, rifle and pistol in sight was taken.

The men revolted because they heard Gen. Orozco had resigned his military position and because one hundred men were dismissed from the Juarez garrison.

Several stores were broken open by the mutineers, and every cartridge, rifle and pistol in sight was taken.

STANFORD'S BEST HURDLER GOES TO OPERATING TABLE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 1.—George Horine, Stanford's great high jumper, was taken to the Palo Alto Hospital last night and will be operated on for a defective cartilage in the knee cap. It is doubtful whether he will be able to wear spikes again this year.

The news that Horine was probably lost to the Stanford track squad came as a stunning blow to the students. He holds a record of six feet four inches and is usually a sure winner in intercollegiate competition.

Horine got his first training in track work when he was a student of the Santa Ana High School.

TRACES ARE FOUND OF MISSING MINING MAN

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—Colonel T. E. Eddy, mining man, and formerly district attorney at Goldfield, who was missing from his apartments in the Angelus Hotel ten days ago, at a time when he was about to effect a supposed $15,000,000 mining merger, was seen at the Forday apartments in Ocean Park last Thursday.

He made inquiry at the ticket office there as to rates and routes to San Francisco and it is now believed he is in the Bay City.

SANTA ANITA PADDOCK AND GRAND STAND BURN

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—The grand stand and paddock of the Santa Anita racing plant near Arcadia was destroyed by fire last night, removing another one of the late "Lucky" Baldwin's landmarks.

The fire, presumably started by tramps, destroyed buildings costing $75,000, with insurance of $25,000. The plant has been idle for three years.

PORT ORCHARD, Wash., Feb. 1.—Under cross-examination of Dr. Stephen Olmstead, an expert defense witness in the trial of Dr. Linda Hazzard, alleged murderer of Miss Elsie Williamson, a wealthy English woman, admitted that fifty quarts of asparagus broth daily was necessary to sustain life.

It is alleged Dr. Hazzard killed the woman by a fast cure, the state alleging that Miss Williamson was fed but one pint of asparagus broth or a cup of orange juice daily. It is reported yesterday that Dr. Hazzard will not take the stand in her own defense.

DARROW GOES INTO COURT

Arraigned Today — Saturday
Set for Pleading—Transcript Evidence Refused

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 1.—Clarence Darrow, charged with bribery in the McNamara case, was arraigned before Presiding Judge Hutton today. Saturday morning at 10 o'clock was set for pleading. The defense waived the reading of the formal indictment.

Attorney Earl Rogers, Darrow's counsel, stated that he will, on Saturday, file formal demurrers to the sufficiency of the indictments, with a motion to quash or strike out. If overruled, Darrow will immediately plead not guilty. Rogers asked whether the defendant would be allowed a copy of the transcript of the grand jury indictment. The court denied the request.

Earl Rogers and Judge Cyrus F. McNutt represented Darrow in today's proceedings. Assistant District Attorney Ford and Deputy Arthur Keeton appeared for the state.

The prosecution is prepared to call many witnesses but will not divulge any names. It is rumored that Darrow's office force is included in the list.

Keep Your Eyes On The Register Tomorrow Night

First List of Names of Candidates in the Register's Contest Will Appear and Additional Prizes Will be Named

That the women, both married and single, of Orange county now realize the value of getting their names in the Contest Department for Saturday night is evidenced by the number of nomination blanks that have been received. Judging from the prominent names sent in, one could hardly term this an Automobile Contest, but nevertheless that is what the contest started out to be, and it is now in every sense of the word an Auto-Popularity Contest.

New then, all the names that have been sent to the Contest Department up to date will be credited with 5000 votes to start with.

Names Published Tomorrow

All the names that the contest editor has received up until 6 o'clock this evening will be published in tomorrow night's Register.

If you have any doubt that you have not been nominated as a candidate to compete for this magnificent E-M-F Touring Car you should clip the nomination blank from this paper right now and send it in today in order to have your name appear with the others.

Convenience

There isn't a person that wouldn't like to take a trip around the country when it is convenient. It is not always convenient in life for a person to use some one else's machine, and it is certainly not convenient to jam yourself into a stuffy train when you are out for pleasure. It is also anything but a pleasure to go out on a Sunday or any other day in your buggy and be obliged to swallow the dust from horses' heels. And you can't go as fast as you like, because it is human to consider the horse. Walking for pleasure is not so bad, but you can't see the country and you can't make time. A sudden determination to attend an out-of-town visit, social or dance, would be great if one could only get there before the party breaks up.

AN AUTOMOBILE IS THE ANSWER! BUT ONE LIKE THE E-M-F WOULD COST YOU FOURTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS.

These are just a few of the inconveniences of life that a person has to put up with and a few of the pleasures that one misses in life through not having the quick and convenient mode of transportation known from one end of the United States to the other as the E-M-F five passenger touring car, and here is a chance to get one for the mere accumulation of subscriptions to the Daily Register, nothing more.

Be Your Own Boss

Here is an opportunity that awaits you now; an opportunity to rid yourself of all these inconveniences—to throw off the obligation of having to wait on the Southern Pacific

All this for six weeks' effort on your part.

The nomination blank, good for 5000 votes, expires next Saturday night. Cut it out of this issue now and send it in at once.

"New" and "Old" Subscribers

Some people seem not to understand this matter.

Any name that was on our subscription list on Thursday, Jan. 25th, the date this contest was announced, is an "old" subscriber, no matter whether he was at that date in arrears or not. If his name was on the list on that date it was there in good faith on the part of this office and he is an "old" subscriber, AND CANNOT IN ANY WAY COUNT AS "NEW." "THE BARRIER" HERE MONDAY
Rex Beach's masterpiece, "The Barrier," will be presented at the opera house next Monday, Feb. 5th, by an excellent company of Eastern players. The stage version of the book ranks as the most accurate exponent of life in Alaska ever presented on the American stage. It is a play with the zest of life, the rigor of the game, the reckless daring of the adventurer, and has a rich vein of humor running through it all. This is the first transcontinental tour of "The Barrier," and it comes here direct from a year's run at the New Amsterdam Theater, New York City. Miss Eleanor Haber, a well known Eastern actress, has been specially engaged to play the character of "Necia," and that sterling favorite, Norval MacGregor, will be seen as "Captain Burrell." The supporting company is first class in all respects and a beautiful scenic production is carried.

"The Barrier" has for its plot the story of a hunted man whose daughter has staked a claim which turns out rich, and relates the attempt to steal it from her. The intervention in her behalf by the United States Army is in the person of a handsome young captain, who eventually woos and marries her. The story in the telling is one of the most strongly dramatic that has been staged in the past decade.

REALTY BROKER WAS IN THE SWINDLE

Woman Arrested Here Makes Confession That Causes Arrest at San Diego

That Louis Kleinman, a real estate dealer of San Diego, was a partner in the swindle of Mrs. Eugenia Townsend, is the gist of a confession made by Mrs. Hattie Nelson, who, with Harry Nelson, was arrested aboard a Santa Fe train here by Deputy Sheriff Squires. The man and woman had $1594.50 in their possession. They were headed for Sweden when arrested here.

A San Diego dispatch says:

"SAN DIEGO, Jan. 31.—Developments are following quick and fast in the wake of the arrest of Louis Kleinman, realty broker, here this afternoon on a charge of negotiating a forged mortgage through the aid of which Mrs. Eugenia Townsend was swindled out of $2000 in an apartment house deal in San Diego. "The arrest of Kleinman followed the confession of Mrs. Hattie Nelson, or Hattie Cortez, which she says is her real name, for the swindling of Mrs. Townsend. The sum of $1600 which was taken from Mrs. Nelson's companion was admitted as a part of the $2000 secured from the victim. The remaining $400, according to the confession made by Mrs. Cortez, was paid to Kleinman for the issuing of the forged mortgage.

The mortgage on which, the complaint against Kleinman is based is purported to be executed by John Barnett and wife to Hattie Nelson. The mortgage purports to secure a loan of $8500 on property at Second and Grant streets, Portland, said to be worth $125,000. The mortgage was given to J. P. Dupaul in payment for the Leslie rooming-house and a lease of the building. The complaint causing Kleinman's arrest charges him with intent to defraud Dupaul. Kleinman was arraigned this afternoon. His hearing was set for February 15, bail being fixed at $1500.

DEMANDS LAW BE ENFORCED

Judge of Superior Court of San Bernardino Writes to Officer

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 1.—Frank F. Oster, judge of the juvenile court, has written a letter to County Probation Officer M. A. Bagley, ordering him to have notices printed and mailed to warn those interested of the juvenile law as amended by the last legislature.

The letter says in part: "Under the juvenile court law, as amended in 1911, any boy or girl under the age of 21 years, who habitually visits any saloon or place where liquors are sold or given away, or uses intoxicating liquor as a beverage, or smokes cigarettes, is a dependent, and any such boy or girl who violates any law or city or county ordinance is a delinquent. Section 26 of said act makes any person who encourages, causes or contributes to the dependency or delinquency of any such child guilty of a high misdemeanor and subject to a fine of $1000 and imprisonment in the county jail for one year. While it is presumed that everyone knows the law, I am inclined to think that there are young men and women, and also persons engaged in the liquor and cigarette traffic who do not realize the full significance of these provisions."

The notices ordered posted by Judge Oster in addition to recitation of the above information, read in part:

"Every person furnishing intoxicating liquor or cigarettes to any boy or girl under 21 years of age is, therefore, subject to prosecution under this act. Notice is hereby given that any person violating any of the foregoing provisions of the juvenile court law will be vigorously prosecuted. This notice is particularly designed to notify all vendors of intoxicating liquors and cigarettes and to warn them against any infraction of the juvenile court law."

The probation officer also is directed to send the notices to every school principal in the county and to every vendor of intoxicating liquors and cigarettes with the request that they be posted in a conspicuous place.

FORMER SANTA ANAN BUYS POMONA GROVE

Pomona Progress: F. D. Smith, formerly of Santa Ana, where he has been residing for several years, has purchased of Edward Brubaker his magnificent orange grove home, located on the Foothill boulevard about one and a half miles west of Claremont. This is one of the show places of the valley. It consists of 10 acres, mostly all in full bearing orange trees, navels and valencias, with a fine crop on the trees. The place is better known as the Summer orange grove, being a portion of the extensive orange groves originally planted by Professor C. B. Sumner of Claremont. The place is finely improved with a large artistic bungalow and garage, has fine oak trees and an attractive driveway. Interest in a pumping plant goes with the property.

WALNUT MEN HOLD MEETING

No Change Made in the Original Price Set by the Associations
Los Nietos Hold-Over Crop Is Bought Up by Committee at Twelve Cents

Los Angeles Tribune: With from twenty-five to thirty per cent of the walnut crop still in the hands of growers, and with numerous and vigorous protests pouring in from producers directed toward the executive committee of the Southern California Walnut Growers' association declaring it set too high a selling price last fall, members of the executive committee met after hasty summons yesterday afternoon in the committee room of the Chamber of Commerce building and made preliminary arrangements to meet the situation.

No steps were taken for a reduction of the association price, set last fall at 14 cents, although walnuts have been selling since the opening of the season from 12 to 13 cents.

Threats of unloading crops held for five months, made by the Los Nietos association, a member of the general association, contributed to the heat of yesterday's session. Arrangements were made for the purchase of this association's crop at 12 cents.

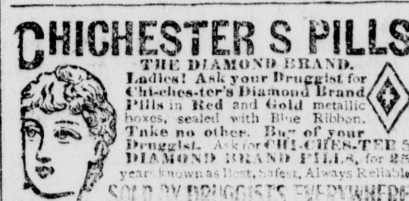

When the price was fixed by the executive committee it was believed the crop would be considerably smaller than it turned out to be.

CONTEMPT FOR THE LAW

There are other things besides familiarity which breed contempt.

For instance, a notorious roadhouse near San Jose was raided at an early hour on Sunday morning, by order of District Attorney A. M. Free of Santa Clara county. The place was found "crowded with society parties, and not Tenderloin habitués," according to the detective who led the raiders.

Nobody was arrested, but the District Attorney has issued a warning that the "inmates will go to jail if the place has to be raided again."

The detective and the deputy sheriffs who aided him refused to give names of any of "those present," the detective telling a reporter that "the people are too prominent to make their names public."

Which moves the Sacramento Bee to contemptuous remarks.

"And yet one reads now and then that the law is no respecter of persons!"

"If the law is not, its officers often are."

"Such discrimination as was shown in this instance, in favor of 'prominent persons,' is among the things that are creating great bitterness in this country and justifying the complaint that it has become plutocratic."

"If 'prominent persons' and 'society parties' are patrons of vicious resorts, of such vile reputations as to justify raiding and suppression by the authorities, it is just such visitors who should be exposed to public reprobation."

But instead of such richly deserved publicity, "prominent" persons, and "society parties," are favored with trucking and toadying secrecy by those very officials and servants of the law who should be the first to expose them."

THE WORLD GROWS BETTER

Because there are tales of tragedy and crime and vice in the public prints do not be misled into believing that the world is hopelessly tobogganing to the bad. The sweet and beautiful and happiness-dispensing conditions of life do not get into print because they are the rule everywhere, and the tragic, the criminal and the scandalous are the exception. The newspapers do not print long articles about clear, balmy, health-giving weather anywhere. It is only the blizzard, the tornado, the cold wave or the heat wave, with their deadly consequences, that get into the news dispatches. And these are the climatic exceptions almost everywhere. There is more good than bad in the world, there is more that is bright and beautiful than that is dark and repellent.—Whittier News.

WHAT OTHER ORANGE COUNTY PAPERS ARE SAYING EDITORIALY

NAY, ROMAN!

Orange News: It is reported that friends of Miguel Estudillo are trying to get him into the congressional race. Refuse the crown, Caesar. There are too many political Brutus waiting for just such a play as that at the foot of Pompey's statue.

ASSEMBLY POSSIBILITY

Orange News: Low Wallace, Newport Beach, has been mentioned as a possible candidate for Assemblyman from Orange County. Although he has had nothing to say in the matter, such talk is by no means idle. It is doubtful if any man in the county has more real friends than the Newport banker, and it is still more doubtful if any man in the county would represent this section with more ability and influence than Wallace.

RESPONSIBLE MEN NEEDED

Orange News: The average citizen is woefully derelict in the duty he owes to city government. He takes the ground that it is an automatic, perpetual motion concern that will run by itself, and that requires attention only when it rubs him the wrong way.

According to news dispatches the city of Colton is to pay the penalty for a breach of contract made by a board of trustees and the penalty will be $50,000. The case in point was a lighting contract abrogated by the city and made the subject of a damage suit. A notable feature of the case was that not a single member of the board of trustees making the contract could be placed on the stand in the city's defense.

Whether or not the verdict will stand, it is sufficient evidence of the advisability of placing responsible men in city offices and of the general public giving particular attention to the matter of selection. A municipal election is to be held in Orange this spring, and it is time that serious thought is given as to the men who are to fill the city offices.

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—"The country is not going to the dogs," might be called the text of a sermon on present conditions delivered the other day to a reporter from the United Press, by Frederick W. Lehmann, solicitor general of the United States and one of the most brilliant and progressive legal minds in the Taft cabinet. Lehmann had been asked if the activities of the government in prosecuting corporations under the Sherman law, and the movement in many states for popular government, were not bound to produce hard times.

"It is the fashion now for business men to view conditions with alarm," he replied. "A sort of contagious pessimism has swept the country, but there is small foundation for it." As a humorous illustration of his point he read a letter which he had just received from a bank of which he is a stockholder. But instead of starting with the first word, he read the last paragraph first and saved the first sentence for the end. The latter part of the letter bewailed the tottering financial conditions of the country and looked to the future with gloomy forebodings. The first sentence bade Lehmann find enclosed, check to cover the regular semi-annual dividend and a two per cent additional dividend.

"That bank," he continued, "is making money at the rate of 12 per cent a year, and yet the officers complain of business. But what is true of it is largely true of the very corporations whose officers are prophesying panic and warning against the consequences of continual governmental interference with business. The country is prospering, but it is now fashionable to complain."

"We don't have to go very far back in our history to find another period when it was the fashion of business to proclaim that the incroaching of government upon corporations was bringing on the ruin of the country. That was when the agitation of the grangers brought about the first state laws regulating railroad rates."

"The idea that the public might have something to say about what a railroad could charge for its services was proclaimed a dangerous, confiscatory, unconstitutional, revolutionary doctrine. Yet the laws were passed, and the Supreme court upheld them, stating that the state has as much constitutional right to regulate railroad rates as the District of Columbia had to regulate the charges of ferries, cabs and chimneysweeps."

"In 1872 Bisc and the railroads fought their fight, and I venture to say the world never saw such railroad expansion and prosperity as occurred in this country after regulation laws were on the statute books."

"Much of the complaints against government aggression upon business results because men lose sight of the public nature of a corporation. Originally when corporation charters were granted by act of congress it was apparent that the people were simply delegating individuals to perform a public service. And of course they have the fundamental right to regulate the corporation in the performance of the service."

"But nowadays when a corporation is founded in a private office by a few scratches of a pen the incorporators forget the public nature of their corporation and regard it as none of the public's business what the corporation does, so long as it does not violate the laws. This is a false idea of the theory of a corporation."

"The Supreme Court decision which made clear the constitutional right of states and the federal government to regulate railroads, made it plain that the government has an equally good right to regulate any corporation, whether engaged in the business of transportation or any other service. The day will come, I think, when the people will exercise this right, though the law makers have not yet seen fit to extend government supervision beyond transportation corporations."

Are you interested, or must I talk to the farmers only?

It is possible that an immediate and active campaign of education may so improve the methods of cultivating the soil as to materially change results and avert conditions too distressing to be calmly contemplated.

When the farmer increases his net income without impairing his capital, he creates new wealth, swells bank deposits, puts more money into circulation and increases the demand for everything that is for sale. It is well to remember that everybody to a certain extent is a merchant, and that every man in every business is dependent upon and is interested in the success of every other man and every other business. No matter who or what you are, you can not alter this elementary fact. The newsboy with his papers, the man with the spade or pick, who has a day's labor for sale, the lawyer with his brief, the tradesman with his wares, the newspaper with its space, the owner of a $20 lot or a million-dollar building—all are not only interested in, but dependent upon the products of the soil. No other occupation or business is so valuable to every other avocation as is profitable and successful farming, for it means better business and more money for you this year, and for all the years that are to come. Shall we in behalf of every business and for the uplift of all the people press this campaign for agricultural education? Will you help?

SEVERE QUAKES IN ALASKA—NO LOSS OF LIFE REPORTED

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 1.—Earthquakes were felt yesterday at Valdez, Cordova, Seward, Fairbanks and in the Tanana Valley in southwestern Alaska. The tremors were severe, though no serious damage or fatalities are reported. Four shocks were felt at Cordova. The first shake was recorded at 11:12 o'clock in the morning and was followed by three shocks at intervals of an hour. A wireless message from St. Paul Island reports all are safe on the Pribilof Islands.

Prof. Henry Landers of the department of geology declared that the north and south movement of the tremors was most pronounced. He said the east and west movements were hardly perceptible.

FAMOUS OLD "MAINE" WILL BE SUNK IN DEEP GULF WATERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—General Bixby, chief of engineers of the army, brings from Havana the report that unless unforeseen difficulties are experienced, all that is left of the old battleship Maine will be floated out of Havana harbor by March 1 and sunk in the deep waters of the Gulf of Mexico, a few miles off the north coast of Cuba.

General Bixby says about a third of the ship has been dumped into the sea without attracting attention. The metal was cut up by an oxy-acetylene jet into half-ton fragments, which were placed in scows and deposited about a mile off shore. It is expected that within a week or ten days only the after part of the ship, which it is proposed to float away intact, will remain in the cofferdam.

Value of Leached Ashes

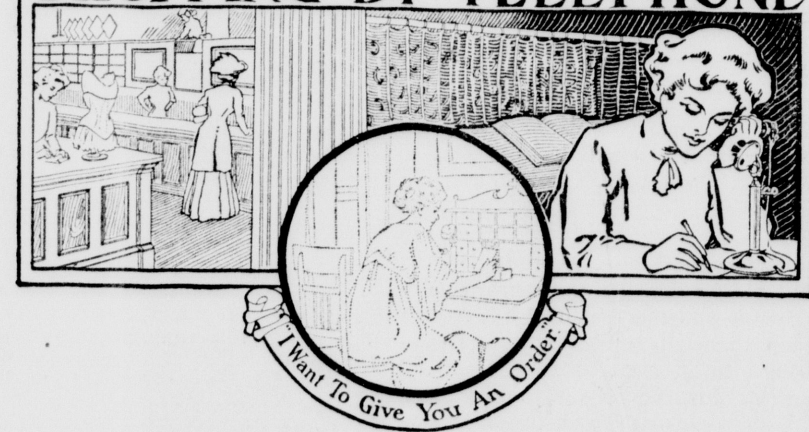

Leached ashes have rarely more than one per cent of potash and one-half per cent of phosphoric acid, which will make them worth about one or two dollars per ton as fertilizers, but on heavy soils they may often be applied with profit just for the loosening effect, and they are valuable as top-dressing or mulch in fruit gardens.

Protection of Small Fruits

It is now time to be thinking seriously of winter protection for small fruits. For strawberries the usual covering of straw is good. In mild locations a layer of straw not less than four inches thick should be applied.

In more severe locations this would be increased to six inches, and in the prairie sections it is desirable to use eight inches of straw, or even more.

EXPECTING 100,000 ADMISSIONS TO SHOW

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 1.—It is expected there will be not less than 100,000 paid admissions at the National Orange Show to be held in San Bernardino the week of February 19 to 24. Preparations are being made by the people of the Gate City to handle that number of visitors and probably many more, if the weather is fair. Two special trains will be run to San Bernardino by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, while other excursion trains are being arranged for from almost every one of the other cities throughout the Southern part of the state. Each of the principal cities will have a special day set apart in the program. Excursion rates have been announced by all the railroads for the big citrus fruit exposition.

President E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fe system has accepted an invitation to participate in the opening ceremonies the evening of Monday, February 19, and announces that he will spend several days at the show which lasts all of Washington's birthday week. Many other prominent railroad men will also attend the show as will representatives of both the San Francisco and San Diego expositions, to speak on the opening night of what will be the greatest fruit exposition ever held in America.

DAKOTA CROP FAILURES THREATEN SUFFERING

FAIR POINT, S. D., Feb. 1.—Home-steaders of Meade county have issued an appeal for aid, declaring that many are in danger of starving as the result of crop failures the last three years. Clothing, fuel and food are asked. The appeal is endorsed by George F. Badweiser, United States commissioner, who has charge of the relief work.

IN HONOR OF GUEST

Miss Lois Tedford Hostess at Dinner for Santa Rosa Society Girl

Miss May McMeans, a charming young woman who was chosen by Santa Rosa as queen of the Rose Carnival last year, is visiting at the W. B. Tedford home on her return from a six months' tour of the East and the South. Her hostess, Miss Lois Tedford, gave a delightful dinner party in her honor last evening, inviting a dozen of her friends to meet Miss McMeans. Lavender, the prevailing color in the table decorations, delicate violets with maiden hair ferns being used in the centerpiece, violet place cards and lavender shaded candelabra with bows of lavender maline completing the dainty color scheme.

The guest list included the names of the Misses Shatto, Marietta Davis, Michod, Irene Beatty, Verna Peterson, Robinson, Lena and Hazel Thomas, Florence Mullinix, Mesdames Clarence Tedford and William Spurgeon, Jr.

Dinner was served at six-thirty o'clock, and the brief after dinner hour intervening between that time and the going up of the curtain for "Cupid at Vassar," at the Opera House, was happily spent. The guests attended the play, individual engagements preventing them from going in a party.

Pleasant Luncheon

Another of the delightful social affairs with which Mrs. H. C. Dawes has punctuated that present social season was given by her yesterday, when she gave a one o'clock luncheon at her lovely home. The round dining table is so generously proportioned that she can accommodate a goodly number, and yesterday covers were laid for a large number. Jonquils, violets and maiden hair ferns were used in the exquisite table decorations.

Following the luncheon the ladies busied themselves with needlework, delightfully diversified with conversation and music furnished by Mrs. Theo. Wimbler, Mrs. A. J. Padgham and Miss Roberta Dawes.

CUPID AT VASSAR

Pretty Play Successfully Presented by H. S. Graduates at Opera House

Dan Cupid himself was at the Grand Opera House last night to see that his name play, "Cupid at Vassar," was properly produced. Whether it was the inspiration of the presence of the little love god, or the excellent training given by Ernest Crozier Phillips, or the histrionic ability of the young players, or perhaps all three combined that made the play run so smoothly we cannot say, but certain it is that "Cupid at Vassar," as was presented last night by the graduating class of Santa Ana High School, was most highly entertaining to an audience that filled the opera house from foyer to footlights. Not one member of the class but did well. The stage pictures were satisfying, making a good setting for the pretty girls and manly fellows of '12A who gave the class play.

Honors fell to dainty Miss Letitia Livesey as Rose Newton and handsome Robert Paine as John Willett, both for acting and singing. Not only were they good to look upon but they each played with a simplicity and understanding of their parts that was pleasant to see. Their singing duet in the first act was sweet and taking, winning a decided encore. Of the others in the cast, Shiny, a lazy dorker, was so well portrayed by Royce Lantz as to put that young man in line with the stars. His playing had almost a professional finish.

Miss Genoa Elderly acted the selfish, spoiled Wanda with skill, while Miss Lucile Dessery achieved a distinct success in her playing of the dual characters, Mrs. Carroll of Great Falls, Vt., and Miss Page, matron of the dormitory, giving an individuality to each.

The disagreeable part of Amos North, the grasping rich young man of the village who sought to win Rose from John Willett at any cost, was well taken by William Wollaston, who wore a transforming mustache that changed him from a nice looking young man in real life to a real villain. Hank Culbin, the "hired man," well acted by Orin Daniel, got "next" to the audience with his quip sayings and peculiar style of dress.

Miss Elizabeth Paine and Miss Elsie Lantz, as Sally Webb and Helen Conway, made hits with the audience, as jolly Vassar girls.

Then there was Cupid, complete with wings and lovely curves. Little Alice Prather, the baby girl of the Tustin Prathers, was adorable as the little love god, and the audience went wild over the rosy child who ran with baby grace across the stage and whose dimpled hands waved salutes and kisses.

And oh, that daisy chain of girls, seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen! Every girl was a beauty and every "daisy chain" was grace. Indeed the daisy chain was one of the most delightful links in the cable of pleasure woven last evening by "Cupid at Vassar." Most of the feminine principals of the play were in the "chain" as well as the following: Misses Wilhelmina Cavins, Dixie Perkins, Violet Twist, Emily West, Edna McMurphy, Grace Downing, Lina Yarnell, Anna Walker, Georgia Liggett, Letitia Livesey, Marie Harris, Helen Roberts, Winifred Hussler, Genevieve Carner, Alice Cranston, Evelyn Decker, Dorothy Twist, Helen Crose, Hazel Gray, Dorothy Dean, Myrtle Dietrick, Grace Gephart, Jean Robertson, Edna Hamaker, Gertrude Bassett, Ruth Visel, Francis DuBarry, Lillian Freemont and Jane Adams.

BIGGEST MONTH IN THE COUNTY'S HISTORY

Nothing shows better than the records of the county recorder's office how the county is growing. This remark is pertinent just now for the reason that the month of January was the biggest month in the history of the county. The fees taken in by the office for recording documents in January came to $1722.30, which was $216.55 more than the next biggest month, November of 1911.

probably be able to proceed more intelligently.

"In the inter-state cases, the 'back haul' is before the United States Supreme court, while the 'lemon rate case' has been reaffirmed by the Interstate Commerce Commission at $1.00 per 100 pounds.

"In the matter of abolishing the Commerce Court, under date of Dec. 31, 1911, the press states: 'A nation-wide campaign by the shipping interests of the country for the abolishment of the Court of Commerce was announced here (San Bernardino) today by Geo. M. Coody, president of the Interior Counties Freight Bureau, which body, he stated, would lead the fight'."

To Send Resolution. A resolution was passed, directed to Mayor Alexander of Los Angeles, asking the authorities of Los Angeles to protect the interests of the towns on the Pacific Electric lines when Los Angeles comes to a settlement of a controversy now on in that city. That controversy concerns a proposal to restrict the travel of freight cars on certain streets in Los Angeles. It has been reported that the restrictions might be a detriment to the freight business of outside towns. The resolution was short and merely asked that in whatever action is taken, the interests of the outside towns be kept in mind.

Draft Resolutions. A. I. Stewart of Fullerton and L. L. Shaw of Santa Ana were appointed by President Aldrich as a committee to draft resolutions of respect for the memory of Col. O. H. Coulter, who died recently. Col. Coulter, though a resident of Santa Ana, was the representative of Laguna Beach in the Associated Chambers of Commerce.

To Go to Orange. The banquets of the association have been held in the various phases of the county, according to alphabetical arrangement. It was stated that by this arrangement the next meeting should go to Orange. Orange representatives have not attended the Associated Chambers' meetings for several months, and there was no one present last night with an invitation for the body to meet there for the February meeting on the 28th. Stern of Fullerton moved that the officers of the association go to Orange and make all arrangements for the banquet, and invite the members of the Orange Chamber of Commerce to attend. The motion carried unanimously.

About 100 men were present at the meeting last night. The banquet was served at the Newport Beach hotel, and the guests were more than pleased with the entertainment. An excellent chicken dinner was served. Those present from Santa Ana were Dr. G. H. Dobson, E. L. Vegoly, L. L. Shaw and C. R. Schenck.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR BETTERING CONDITIONS

City Health Officer Clark this afternoon made an examination of sanitary conditions at McKinley school on West Third street, and made recommendations for changes in the building that will add ventilation and light to the basement in a portion of the building where toilets are located. With these changes an unpleasant condition will be remedied.

FOUND DEAD BY TRACKS

Unknown Man Picked Up at Anaheim Died From Natural Causes

ANAHEIM, Feb. 1.—The dead body of an unknown man was found lying near the North street crossing of the Santa Fe, about half a mile north of the station, early yesterday morning. A passer-by who saw the man lying there reported the matter to Undertaker Terry, and the latter, after communicating with Coroner Winbiger, brought the body to his establishment here. The man appeared to be about 45 years of age, and had all the appearance of a tramp. There was nothing in his clothing by which he could be identified with the exception of a receipt for a money order, made out in Riverside in October last, and showing that Charles A. Wilson had sent a money order to Gordon Morrison, but giving no address.

Coroner Winbiger came over in the afternoon, and made an examination, and ordered an autopsy on the body. This showed that death had resulted from the rupture of an aortic aneurism. It was learned that the man had been seen the evening before his death very much under the influence of liquor, and it is thought that he simply wandered out along the tracks and was overcome by his heart weakness. There were no marks of violence on the body and no signs of a struggle.

Ed. Carey, who was found wandering on the street Saturday night with a severe knife wound in his abdomen, is reported to be doing well at the Anaheim Hospital, and his physicians look for his recovery unless complications should set in, although the wound was a very dangerous one. Carey has been unable to give any account as to how he received the wound, and investigation by the officers has brought out nothing along this line. Carey said he received the wound somewhere in the neighborhood of the Santa Fe tracks, and as a large number of hoboes were infesting the section at the time it is believed that he either quarreled with some of them or was attacked.

FULLERTON EXHIBIT AT ORANGE SHOW

FULLERTON, Feb. 1.—A committee from the Chamber of Commerce is making arrangements for a Fullerton display at the Orange Show to be held in San Bernardino the latter part of the month. Fullerton has the facilities for making an exhibit which will be second to none, and although plans have not been completed by the committee as yet it is proposed to prepare an exhibit which will do justice to the section.

Fullerton's new system of electric street lighting is to be placed in operation next Saturday night, according to the engineers in charge. The large transformer which will handle the current has just been put in place, and the system is now practically complete. There are to be five 250-watt Tungsten center suspended, in the business district, and 50-watt Tungsten on the residence streets. Part of these will be on brackets and part center suspended.

The Standard Oil Company has just secured a lease from A. E. Yorba of his tract adjoining the Amalgamated lease. It is reported that the Standard pays a bonus of $6000 for the lease, and also gives a royalty on the oil produced. The Standard is greatly increasing its acreage both in new and proven territory, and its activity gives promise of great development to come.

Gus Stern, W. A. Goodwin and others from here attended the monthly meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce in Newport Beach last night.

STREETS TO BE BRIGHT

Contracts Being Signed for Ornamental Lights in Anaheim Business Section

ANAHEIM, Feb. 1.—A representative of the American Orr Concrete Pole Co. today began signing contracts with the business men and property-owners interested for the erection of ornamental concrete poles, supporting ornamental cluster lights, along Center and Los Angeles streets, covering the entire business section. Secretary Ahlborn and members of the Board of Trade have been working on this project for several months, and finally secured the co-operation of practically all the frontage in the business section.

The lights are to be placed 100 feet apart, extending on Center street from the city hall corner to Lemon street, and on Los Angeles from Chatterbox to Broadway. Fifty poles will be required to cover this territory, each supporting a cluster of five lights in artistic globes. The lights will be arranged on two circuits, so that while the whole cluster may be allowed to burn during the active hours of the evening, and afterward all but one light on each pole be turned out. The city will furnish the current for the lights. Later it is expected that they will be extended on both streets.

The American Orr Concrete Pole Company is a local concern which is meeting with much success in the exploitation of its patent pole, the invention of a local man. Work will be started by the company as soon as all the contracts have been signed.

Will Open Bids
A special meeting of the city council will be held this evening to open bids for the proposed addition to the city hall, to be used for jail purposes. At present the steel cage in the rear of the city hall contains but two cells, and frequently, especially during the hobo season, they are inadequate. It is planned to build a concrete or brick addition on the rear of the present building, which will give increased cell facilities and also room for other jail features.

The formal laying of the cornerstone of the Administration building of the new Polytechnic group, which was set for next Saturday, has been postponed for one week owing to delay in completing the program. The Administration building is the last of the new group to be started, and will be one of the handsomest. Work is progressing on it rapidly.

The newly elected board of directors of the Anaheim Union Water Company will meet at the offices here Saturday for the purpose of organizing and electing officers. It is generally expected that President Wm. Crowther, who has made a most efficient officer, will be re-elected. Secretary Wm. Wallop, who was recently elected to that position, will continue in office without the necessity of another election.

The Dramatic Club held a business meeting last night at the home of Miss Edith Erickson. The club is preparing for the presentation of a play in the near future, and this matter was under discussion at the meeting. Charles Baxter left last night for Orosa, Tulare county, where he goes to investigate a projected new industry in that section, the growing of ramie. At present all of this plant used in the country is imported from China, and brings a high price, but it is said that experiment has proved that it can be grown profitably in California. Should Mr. Baxter find the outlook as favorable as he expects he may invest heavily in the project. He will be gone several weeks.

The Crowther Cadet Band will give its first public concert at the opera house tomorrow night, assisted by Mrs. Harvey Holland, soprano, and Miss Dowling, pianist. Under the efficient direction of Prof. Edward A. Crowther this organization has made splendid progress, and an enjoyable entertainment is promised those who attend tomorrow night.

John Hartung and C. O. Rust left last night for a business trip to various points in the north.

ANAHEIM AND PASADENA TO HOLD DEBATE

ANAHEIM, Feb. 1.—At the Fremont school tomorrow evening, the second high school debate of the year will occur. Anaheim and Pasadena being participants. The subject to be debated is: Resolved, That after the completion of the Panama Canal, the industries of the canal zone shall be owned and operated by the United States Government, through one man appointed as head.

Debaters for Anaheim are Hans Storm and Walter Spathe, who will support the affirmative. Anaheim has already one victory for the school year, having defeated Covina high in the first debate some months ago.

A committee from the Board of Trade made a trip to the river on Tuesday at the request of G. L. Dietrich, for the purpose of determining the amount of work required along the low banks to protect that city and intervening territory from future inundations. The committee decided that something should be done at once as the old levee was in a bad condition, but the job was too big for private individuals to handle. Mr. Dietrich and his neighbors are putting in a line of piling which was donated by the railroad company.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

There was a firmer market for all varieties of citrus fruits and apples in the wholesale district. While quotations on citrus fruits showed no change there was a strong undercurrent of strength. Dealers ordered more liberally and retailers laid in considerable stock. Fancy Tangerines were quoted up to $3.50 a box. Lemons were held firm from $2.50 to $2.75 per box on fancy packed stock. New navel oranges sold at the outside figure of $2.50. The new arrivals of oranges were sweeter than those formerly received and were in better demand by the retailers.

The apple situation showed no quotable change, but the trade was more lively and more stock was changing hands. The warm weather has acted as a stimulus to the market. Bellefleurs, Newton Pippins and the leading red sorts were all active, whether for cooking purposes or table use. Pears sold on a small scale, several of the later varieties still appearing on the market.

Dried fruits and nuts were firm with a good outside demand for fancy packs and brands. Tropical fruits with the exception of bananas were firm. Bananas were in poor call and the market declined 1/2 cent, the stock selling at 3 1/2 cents per pound.

Green vegetables were scarce, the market was in good shape. Celery firmed up and sold from $4.50 to $4.75 a crate. Fancy green peas were scarce and some stock sold up to 12 cents per pound. Wax beans were held at 20 cents for fancy stock. The egg market took another tumble when 1 1/2 cents was knocked off candled and case counts. Liberal receipts and the anxiety of the dealers to keep the stock moving was the reason assigned for the decline. Storage stock showed no change, being in light demand. Receipts were 629 cases.

Butter quotations were unchanged. The market on the better grades was reported firm under a good call. Inferior stock was inclined to drag. Arrivals were 11,745 pounds.

The cheese market was firm. There was a good call for Eastern varieties and Northern fresh stock, which moved out at full figures. Receipts were 2163 pounds.

Potatoes and onions remained firm at quoted prices. Shipments of potatoes from Salinas and Lompoc have been coming in liberally, but the demand is of big proportions and prices are easily maintained at present levels. Oregon early waxes were scratched from the board on change as this variety is about cleaned up. Oregon early rose spuds are coming in slowly. Potato arrivals were 1611 sacks. No onion arrivals were reported in.

The bean market ruled firm. No receipts were reported.

The sweet potato market was firm to steady. There was a marked falling off in the demand for this commodity. Receipts were 680 sacks.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT

FOUND OWNER OF WALNUTS

Jose Nunez Was Not Tried
Yesterday Afternoon—
Youth Held in Jail

Jose Nunez of Anaheim was not tried yesterday afternoon in Justice Cox's court. The jury-box was filled when Attorney Bell, appearing for Nunez, charged with stealing walnuts, asked that the case be dismissed because the complaint while alleging petty larceny did not state from whom the walnuts were stolen. Justice Cox refused to dismiss the case, and ruled that the prosecution might file an amended complaint, which was done, and tomorrow set as the time for pleading. At the time the complaint was filed the officers did not know from whom the walnuts were stolen. Since that time John Cook has identified several sacks as some stolen from him.

Guilty of Vagrancy
Lawrence Burdau, aged 18, formerly of Santa Ana and until recently of Los Angeles, today pleaded guilty to vagrancy and Justice Cox sentenced him to fifteen days in the county jail. It is probable that a charge more serious than vagrancy will be brought against Burdau.

Woman Arrested
Charged with violation of the eight-hour law for the employment of women, Mrs. Sadie Babbitt, proprietor of the Union Inn at Olinda, was in Justice's court today. The complaint was sworn to by John J. Tobin, a state inspector, who charges that on Jan. 26 Mrs. Babbitt employed and required Muriel Miller and Ida Kupsch to work more than eight hours in one day. The woman was allowed to go on her own recognizance, and the trial was set for Feb. 8.

Warrant Is Out
Deputy Game Commissioner Robinson today swore to a complaint charging C. W. Clendenen of Los Angeles with hunting without a license. The man hunted on the Green Wing preserves. He is chauffeur of one of the members.

Is Held to Answer
Charles Arbis's preliminary examination on a felony charge was held this morning by Justice Fullerton. Arbis is charged with a felony. The hearing was behind closed doors.

Marriage Licenses
On Jan. 31—Laurence R. Keefer, 27, and Lenore C. Maroney, 27, both of Los Angeles; George W. Reed, 58, and Maggie Deere, 42, both of Brea; Thomas L. Kettlewell, 24, of Los Angeles, and Olive May Bryant, 20, of Hermosa.

WATCH YOUR HAIR, LADIES

Eternal Vigilance Is the Price of Luxuriant and Radiant Hair

If dandruff germs are devouring the nourishment that belongs to the hair it will soon begin to fall. Furthermore it will lose its life and lustre and will become dull, faded and even look slovenly.

If you have any signs of dandruff you ought to go right to your druggist today and get a bottle of PARISIAN SAGE. This delightful and refreshing hair tonic is guaranteed by The Rowley Drug Company to kill dandruff germs, clean the head of filthy dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp or money back. And it does just what it is guaranteed to do and that's why its sales are so enormous the country over. PARISIAN SAGE is the favorite of refined women. One bottle proves its superiority.

ALFALFA MEN ARE VERY MUCH "IN CLOVER"

Riverside Press: A cent a pound for alfalfa hay is making it profitable for ranchers who are so fortunate these days as to be engaged in the culture of this forage plant, to extract another cutting from the year's already rich returns.

In the Perris Valley, for instance, the growers are still irrigating their alfalfa, which the warm sunshine of these spring days is causing to spring up in lively fashion for this time of year. Even if the growth reaches only 10 inches, the rancher can well afford to harvest a short crop with prices ruling at $29 and $22 a ton.

This season is serving to emphasize the fact that the alfalfa grower has an absolute cinch on the clouds. He makes it to rain at will, and prospective dry seasons have no terrors for him. He has learned also, that he can further protect himself by the conserving of storm water that annually runs off to the sea. The alfalfa growers tributary to the Santa Ana river who operate individual pumping plants, have benefited in large measure from the water-spreading operations of the water conservation commission at the head of the Santa Ana.

In Southern California, where most crops are practically a certainty because of irrigation, nothing is more sure than alfalfa, which is not subject to any danger from cold waves, as is the case with citrus fruits.

BOY SLAIN IN FEUD BETWEEN ORIENTALS AND WHITES

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—Trouble between the pupils of Washington school and the Orientals school is responsible for the death of James Kane, aged fourteen, according to the police.

Kane's body was found in the rear of the Oriental school by the janitress, with a bullet in his head. A Chinese pupil was recently arrested for an assault on a white student. The police believe the boy was shot in the street, then dragged to the school.

FIRMER TONE
IN COT SALES

Dried Fruit Association Is Doing Some Shipping at Present Time

Dr. J. G. Berneike, secretary of the Orange County Dried Fruit Association, says:

The apricot market is showing a firmer tone and more activity. Local buyers are scouring the county to get the outside fruit at 12 cents a pound, the price at which they were able to pick up several carloads during the last few months. Outsiders are beginning to stiffen up on the price, however, and it is probable that practically no more will be shipped out at that price, except what has passed into the hands of the packers in the last few days or a week.

The Orange County Dried Fruit Association is loading two cars now. The fact that the association made a cut in its price recently to get fruit started moving, is being used on the outside to hammer the market and scare outsiders who have been holding firmly. Thus the growers who sold their fruit at 12 cents were played off against the growers who held for 14 cents, and in turn the fact of a lowered quotation on the part of the association is now being played off against the outsiders who were holding firmly for 11 cents or more.

Nothing could better illustrate the folly of growers standing outside and letting the association do all the pushing. The growers would this year not have received more than 8 or 9 cents if the association had not been in the field to gather information concerning the crop and all other conditions that affect the price and to hold for a good price. The above was the price that had been determined upon, to be paid the growers. Some of the foreign buyers reckoned without their host when they sold fruit before they had bought. When they came here to buy they found growers well informed on crop conditions and holding for a high price. They had to make the best of the situation, and buy on the best terms they could get. The great distance which export fruit has to be carried brings the buyers here early in the season. The United States dealers are finding growers holding stiffly for a good price did not buy on speculation, but awaited the demand from the consumers, which is just beginning to come in volume.

While the high price naturally lessens the demand to a certain extent, yet as long as the price is reasonable and not prohibitive there is no danger but that all the fruit will be moved at a good price. And there is not very much left in the state at this time, and most of that is controlled by the Ventura and Orange County associations. The report of the secretary of the association on his return from the East will be awaited with great interest.

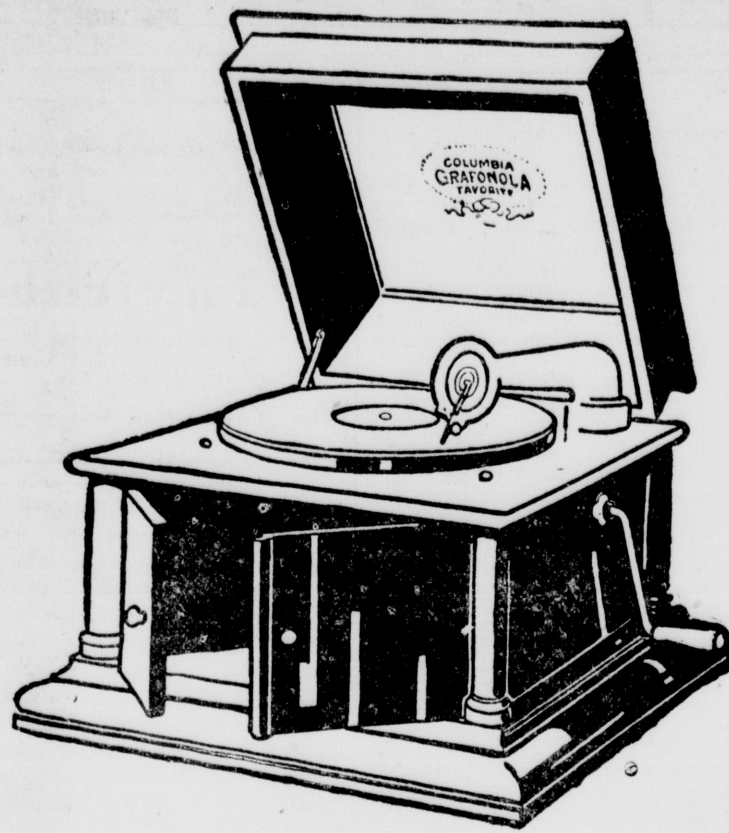

ALL THEIR VEHICLES
MUST CARRY LIGHTS

Lights at night on all vehicles on the roads of the county—that is the decision of the board of supervisors, says the San Bernardino Sun. Action on the subject started in the Board of Trade at Redlands, which asked both the trustees of that city and the supervisors for the county to adopt ordinances requiring all vehicles to carry lights at night, for the mutual protection of all travelers.

As the representative of the Redlands organization, Attorney H. W. Allen came before the supervisors yesterday and formally brought the subject to the attention of the county legislators. Mr. Allen cited not only a recent serious accident in Redlands that might have been avoided had lights been carried by moving vehicles, but he also pointed out the fact that the rule is becoming general, that it has been a law in Los Angeles county for many months. It required little argument to get the supervisors to act, for they have had the subject in mind and the district attorney was directed to draw an ordinance enforcing the regulation.

SAN PEDRO LIKELY TO BE FORTIFIED

U. S. Calls Maj. McKistry
East With Plans for Harbor's Armament

Los Angeles Tribune: With a set of detailed plans for the fortification of San Pedro and construction estimates packed in his portfolio, Major C. H. McKistry, the expert for three years in charge of fortifications at Manila and for two years the installing officer of new batteries at San Francisco, whom it now appears the war department assigned to Los Angeles harbor as government engineer to prepare a report on necessary armament, will leave this city today for Washington.

This fact indicates that the war department has finally decided on the necessity of fortifying the local harbor, and that a request for money with which to do so will be made in the war department appropriation bill, which will be presented to congress shortly after Major McKistry's arrival in Washington. It is estimated the cost of fortifications will be $2,500,000.

Fort for Point Fermin
Details of the plans are held as a war department secret. It is known, however, that a large fort, equipped with fourteen-inch guns, will be erected on the government reserve of 400 acres at Point Fermin; that a torpedo station will be located at the reserve of forty acres near the Huntington fill; that a mortar battery probably will be located at the entrance to Long Beach harbor, and that the entire outer harbor and entrance to the inner harbor will be set with submarine mines.

In addition, it is known that recommendations for the building of recommendation coal bunkers on the long breakwater which protects the outer harbor will be made.
